HPPL GREETINGS

Volume 5, Issue 1, Jan. 2012

Dear Friend,

As HPPL moves into 2012, we have some "unfinished business" from 2011. First, thanks to your support at the end of 2011, both Bonnie and Clyde are on their way to good health. These two pals were found wandering together in mid December. Both of them rail thin and with bad mange. Poor Bonnie had some terrible facial infections as well. As soon as they were rescued, together, of course, they began their medications and in a few short weeks, they have made remarkable recoveries. Just last week, they were altered and now, the hope is that by the beginning of February, these two wonderfully behaved and very sweet dogs will be ready for adoption. Their foster mom says they have perfect manners and aim to please. Looking at the two of them, you can see that HPPL is busy as the New Year starts!

THANK YOU!

A HUGE PAT ON THE BACK...

...goes to all the hardworking volunteers who participated in the end of the year events at the Santa Photos and the Barnes and Noble gift wrapping. HPPL was so fortunate to have people give of their holiday time to cover all the shifts and even the extra ones! Here's Kaiser, a hardworking volunteer and former HPPL foster dog, letting everyone know what their donations make happen.

VOLUNTEER EVENT—SHELL HOUSTON OPEN—MARCH 26 TO APRIL 1

Even though, it seems months away, HPPL is accepting volunteers to assist with the concession stands. There are a variety of shifts available each day. Many hands are needed, so please send a quick note to hpplvolunteering@hppl.org (notice the new address!). Someone will contact you once the shifts are designated. It's tons of fun and you can watch some of the tournament too.

ADOPTION HIGHLIGHTS

ZOEY

ZOEY (HPPL Tag Number 4456)

There are so many wonderful animals in our HPPL foster care program, we encourage you to check them all out at www.hppl.org.

I am a very sweet girl who wants all the love and attention. I was hanging out at a car wash for a while with not a lot of food or not much human interaction. Now that I have been rescued, I crave both. What that means is I should probably be your one and only dog because I sometimes get jealous if I don't get to be first in line for petting and eating. As a single pet, I am PERFECT! I am housetrained and love spending time in my crate. I walk well on the leash and have lovely indoor manners. And I am a beauty. So please consider me to become your new best friend.

For other wonderful dogs and cats needing homes, you can call us at 713-862-7387, view them on our website, or go to www.petfinder.com.

HAPPY ENDINGS

We love to hear about HPPL animals that have been making people's lives happy. If you have a special friend, we encourage you to send us a picture and an update!

Little Lilly

Another happy ending according to Lilly's new family. They were looking for a second sweetie to add to the family and found Lilly on the HPPL website. It was an immediate match and this is what HPPL heard from them recently:

"We love Lilly so much and are so grateful to have her in our home. The attached picture is her with her "sister." Two car seats are one too many. She insists on sitting with her sister in hers (Lilly is on the left)."

Looks like these two girls are great companions!

We Love Happy Endings!
