HPPL GREETINGS

Volume 5, Issue 2, Mar. 2012

Dear Friend,

Bonnie and Clyde were spotlighted in late January as two of HPPL's "works in progress." Found extremely malnourished and practically bald from mange, these two dogs are now beautiful and are just waiting for that perfect home. Their skin conditions were not hard to fix; it just took some time.

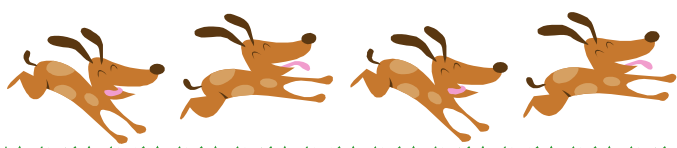

CLYDE

FELICITY

Felicity, on the other hand, had a very long recovery. There's no doubt she was used for breeding since she is a pure Bull Terrier, but apparently, she had enough of that and decided to find a way to a better life. The scars on her face are likely from her trying to find her way out of her confinement. Heavily infested with heartworms and skin infections, Felicity wagged her tail happily at her first visit to the veterinarian. This is a girl who was so grateful for the help HPPL could provide.

These three dogs are prime examples of what your support does for animals. As we move into spring with the calls pouring in, why not take a minute to look at how you can help.

THANK YOU!

AND HERE HE IS...

KAISER is the new HPPL mascot. Lucky for him and for HPPL, Kaiser was rescued back in 2008. After his medical treatments were complete, it only took him one time at the adoption site to find his perfect family. He went to join two other HPPL adoptees and a few years later began to work the crowds at a variety of events. He is great with adults, children, and other animals, all of which made his selection the ideal one. Not only is he very gregarious, he is a wonderful example of what HPPL is all about!

VOLUNTEER EVENT—SHELL HOUSTON OPEN—MARCH 28 TO APRIL 1

HPPL is once again gearing up for the Shell Houston Open, being held at the Redstone Golf Club in Humble. We are manning a concession stand near Hole #1 which is a great location for viewing the golfers. This event is lots of fun, and admission and parking is free for volunteers! We need volunteers to cover a variety of shifts on each day, so please contact the event's coordinator through hpplvolunteering@hppl.org (notice the new address!) She will reply with shift availability and details for parking.

HOUSTON PET EXPO—SAT, APRIL 14, 10 AM TO 6 PM—RELIANT CENTER

Shop. Learn. Play. Adopt. There's something for everyone at the 2012 Houston Pet Expo. Kaiser, the new mascot, will be there along with other friends. Please stop by and say hello. HPPL also needs volunteers to work at the booth with Kaiser, so if you are able to work a shift and help HPPL publicize the work it does, please call 713-862-7387 or contact us through email at hpplvolunteering@hppl.org. There is a ton of fun to be had!

ADOPTION HIGHLIGHTS

ZACH

ZACH (HPPL Tag Number 4412)

There are so many wonderful animals in our HPPL foster care program, we encourage you to check them all out at www.hppl.org.

Our little guy Zach is special needs. Likely having been abused early on, he has a lack of confidence about what a great boy he is. As a result, he is sort of shy and can sometimes be a submissive urinator. He has come a long way in his foster home learning to play well with other dogs and finding out that people are kind and gentle. And that is the kind of forever home he will need. Zach will thrive in a place that is low key, where there is lots of loving attention along with a gentle doggie friend and more than anything, patience. The reward will be a devoted companion who is just so sweet.

For other wonderful dogs and cats needing homes, you can call us at 713-862-7387, view them on our website, or go to www.petfinder.com.

HAPPY ENDINGS

We love to hear about HPPL animals that have been making people's lives happy. If you have a special friend, we encourage you to send us a picture and an update!

Samantha

What a great report on a special dog who had one of the most unusual neurological conditions the HPPL vets had ever seen! Her "dad" says:

"I adopted Samantha (her name was Kyla) in January of 2010. She is doing great and is a very happy dog. Sam has turned out to be a great hiking and camping companion. She is also the sweetest dog I've ever met. Everyone falls in love with her and she doesn't discriminate; she wants to be friends with everyone. Here is a picture from our latest hiking camping adventure. Please keep up the great work!! I wish a wonderful year for the HPPL and hope all the dogs and cats find great homes."

Hollie

Hollie was adopted just before Christmas and HPPL receives regular updates from her proud parents. Most recently we learned that :

"Hollie is a perfect daughter. She is amazing and awesome. She is such a good girl that we don't have any problems with her. We love her so much. Thanks for everything!!!"
