HPPL Greetings

Dear Friend,

The HPPL animals need you! This fall there is something for everyone. And each of the events is all about helping the animals. Whether you want to join HPPL for an event where you can sit back and relax or whether you want to volunteer in a hands-on event, it doesn't matter. What does matter is that each of these opportunities is for the benefit of the dogs and cats already enrolled in our program, but more importantly, it allows HPPL to keep enrolling animals and provide them with medical care even if it is expensive.

We want to be there for them, so we are asking you to be there too. Just keep reading, and you are bound to find several events to go to or help with. Always remember, your support helps homeless animals become happy, healthy and ready for their loving homes.

Adoption Highlights

Shanti (HPPL Tag Number A4681)

Shanti, along with littermates, Ashlin and Rylin, were found as tiny kittens in a back yard. They are now completely ready for the good life. Shanti is a real sweetie who loves playtime with her brothers or just time in a lap being a pampered little girl. This little doll would be a great kitty companion or she would really love a new home with one of her littermates.

Shanti (~3 months)

Happy Endings

Jenna

This note comes from across the ocean! Jenna was adopted by two wonderful HPPL volunteers while they lived in Houston. Now, they are all back in England, and clearly, Jenna has made the adjustment to her new country. Here is what Helen writes: "Hi, I just wanted to show you a picture of Jenna in one of her favorite spots, on our bed. She is about eight now and still has lots of energy in between naps! She is happy for Shadow to race around our garden first and then they play. We adopted her in 2003 and she is ever the lovely dog."

We Love Happy Endings!
